

Does your child have Autism?

Participate in Research on Brain Development!

The purpose of this study is to learn about differences in the brain across children with Autism Spectrum Disorder.

Who can participate?

- Children ages 9-10 with parent/guardian participation
- Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (Autism, Aspergers, High-Functioning Autism, and PDD-NOS)

What does this study include?

- 6 study visits
- MRI scans, questionnaires, interviews and cognitive tasks
- Optional: DNA saliva sample

Compensation*

- Up to approximately $570 in Gift Cards (dependent on number of study visits completed)

To learn more or sign up, scan this code!

For more information:

Contact Julia

 (314)-906-2720

 monk@wustl.edu

Washington
University in St. Louis
SCHOOL OF MEDICINE